Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Jared Musolino, and I am the Design Manager at Wooter Apparel. I am pleased to provide this letter of recommendation for Josh Glanville-Smith, who works as a designer and assistant manager within our team.

In my role, I have had the opportunity to work closely with Josh, overseeing his work and professional development for some time. This has given me a strong understanding of his design capabilities, work ethic, and contributions to the team.

Josh is an exceptionally talented designer and a natural leader. His drive to continually improve has seen his design work and management skills grow year after year. From his day-to-day design work to assisting with larger-scale departmental initiatives and collaborating across a fully remote organisation, Josh is always seeking extra responsibilities and ways to improve the company and expand his own role within it.

He is ambitious, driven, and a natural problem solver. His commitment to self-improvement means he is always looking towards the next step, and lifts the rest of the team around him. He has been invaluable to the growth of the design department at Wooter.

I highly recommend Josh for future employment opportunities. He has consistently demonstrated the skills, attitude, and initiative required to succeed in both design and leadership roles. I have every confidence that he will continue to grow professionally and be a valuable asset to any team or organisation he joins.

Kind regards,

Jared Musolino
